Welcome Father Baker!

Father Robert also serves as Chaplain to St John's School and as Associate Rector at St John's Church. Robert earned a Th.M. from Princeton Theological Seminary with a specialization in New Testament Studies. Robert earned a Ph.D. from Baylor University in Religion. His academic specialty is the Johannine Literature. Robert earned his Anglican Studies from Nashotah House Seminary of the Episcopal Church. Robert also has twenty years of experience as a Critical Care RN. Robert enjoys reading and doing activities outdoors with his wife, Evelyn and their four children: Jeremiah 9, Henry 8, Helen 6, and Richard 5.

Please welcome Father Robert and his family to the Parish!

Dear Christ Church Family,

At Christmas, we celebrate the miracle of the Incarnation, God taking on humanity through the birth of a peasant child born in a remote province of the Roman Empire. When we celebrate Christmas we not only remember and celebrate his birth, but we look forward to his second coming, when all things will be set right and the last enemy, death, will be overcome. Finally, we seek to grow in our relationship with God through Christ in the present.

We begin our Christmas as Anglicans worldwide, on Monday, December 24. Our Christmas services will begin with our 5:00 PM service. This our most attended service so I suggest that you come early if you want a prime seat. Prior to this service there will be a musical prelude beginning at 4:45. The 5:00 service will feature our Children's Pageant and Holy Communion, Rite II. This is the perfect family service. At 7:30 PM we will have a Holy Communion, Rite I service for those who want an earlier evening service than what follows. This service will feature organ music and traditional language. Our final Christmas Eve service will be a full Festival Christmas Holy Communion, Rite II beginning at 10:30 PM. This service will be preceded by a half hour music program starting at 10:00 PM.

On Christmas Day, Tuesday, December 25, we will have our only service of Holy Communion at 10:00 AM.

The Twelve Days of Christmastide conclude on Sunday, January 6, with our three regularly scheduled services: 7:30 AM, 9:00 AM, and 11:00 AM. We will celebrate Epiphany that day as the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord. This is one of the four designated days for public baptisms. If you, a friend or a family member have yet to participate in the Sacrament of baptism, perhaps this will be the day to officially join the Communion of Saints. If so give us a call.

Advent and Christmastide provide us a time to consider our relationship with God, and to survey how we are living into our identity and mission as individuals and as a Church community. In the incarnation, God gives us the gift of God's very self and calls us to enter God's mission of making all things new. In return, we offer back to God our very selves, our souls and bodies. As we engage mission, we offer back to God our time, our talent and treasure. Together, we can accomplish more than we could ever believe in the power of God's Spirit.

The clergy, vestry and staff of Christ Church wish you a blessed Advent and a glorious Christmastide,

Father Robert
Chuck Howard

MUSIC NOTES

200 YEARS OF "SILENT NIGHT"

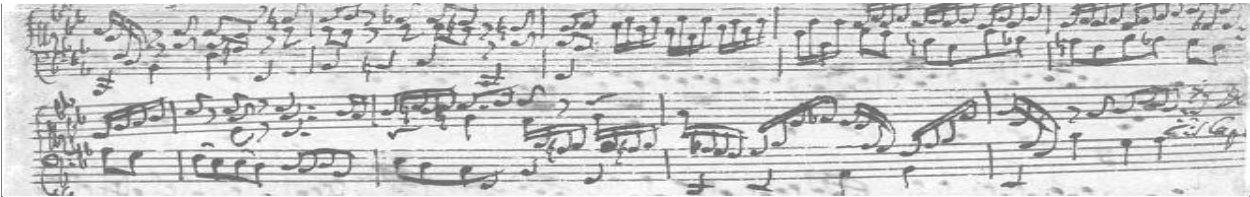

Joseph Mohr was born in 1792 in Salzburg, Austria. His unmarried mother was an embroiderer, and his father a soldier in the service of the Prince-Archbishop of Salzburg, and a deserter. Because he was illegitimate, Joseph's was a life of poverty and shame. Fr. Hiernle, one of his teachers looked after him, however, and saw his intelligence, kind heart and musical talent, and arranged special permission for him to enter the seminary. In 1816 he was assigned coadjutor (assistant priest) in Mariapfarr, a small town. While there, he had a spark of inspiration one day, and wrote a 6-verse poem about a "holy night" with the baby Jesus in a manger and his "parents alone" among the animals. The Child would bring "salvation" and "abundant mercy" from "heaven's golden heights," a "Father's love." The poem closed with an "angel" proclaiming "Jesus, the Savior, is here." The next year he was assigned to St. Nicholas Church in Oberndorf, where he met the parish teacher and organist Franz Gruber.

Franz Gruber was born in 1787 in Hochburg, Austria, to a family of linen weavers and farmers. His father was strongly opposed to his growing interest in music, so Franz studied secretly. Franz had two children with his first wife, Maria, both of whom died before maturity. After Maria passed away in 1825, his second wife, also Maria, born him 10 children, of whom 4 survived into adulthood. After the second Maria died in 1841, he married Katharina, his third wife.

For an unknown reason, Fr. Mohr approached Gruber on December 24, 1818, and asked him to set the poem to music, in time for the Christmas Mass just hours away. With Gruber as bass, Mohr as tenor, and the choir singing the last two lines of each verse, the newly written was first performed with Fr. Joseph providing a guitar accompaniment.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the new carol—except for Fr. Noestler, Fr. Mohr's superior, who didn't approve of Fr. Mohr's singing "uplifting songs" and "joking with members of the opposite sex." The guitar incident was the last straw, and by the following September Fr. Mohr was transferred to another parish. He served several parishes, including his last post at Wagrain, where he built a two-story school for children. He passed away at 55, while battling pneumonia; his estate contained only his guitar, and there was no thought that the life of "Silent Night" would continue.

Back to Oberndorf. Some months after Christmas, 1818, a traveling organ repairman named Carl Mauracher was servicing the organ of St. Nicholas Church, and somehow left Oberndorf with a copy of the carol. Back in his native Tyrol, he showed the music to two family-music troupes (think Von Trapp Family Singers). The Rainer family sang it on tours throughout Europe, while in 1839 the second generation of the family took the carol to New York, and then Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, and New Orleans. In 1959 while serving Trinity Church in New York, the Episcopal bishop John Freeman Young translated the carol into English. Young is now buried in St. Augustine, FL.

Beginning in 1831 the second singing troupe the Strasser family, sang the carol at the annual Christmas market in Leipzig. In Berlin they also sang it for King Frederick William IV of Prussia, who asked about the author and origin of the carol, now his favorite. An official from the royal chapel was sent abroad to learn the carol's true origins, and stopped at St. Peter's Abbey in Salzburg, showing a copy of the carol to the librarian there. By coincidence, one of Franz Gruber's sons was in the library, and verified that his father had written the music to accompany Joseph Mohr's poem.

The original 1818 manuscript version has not survived. Fr. Mohr's guitar was kept in a tavern for many years; any patron could play it. After many floods, St. Nicholas Church was demolished in 1906 and replaced by a memorial chapel. An identical memorial chapel can be seen in Frankenmuth, MI. In 1955 the only copy of the carol in Fr. Mohr's handwriting was found, noting the date of 1816. In 2011 Austria declared the carol as a "National Treasure of Intrinsic Value."

MERRY CHRISTMAS from Clergy and Staff!

VESTRY MINUTES

October 16, 2018

Members Present: Patrick Whelan, Jane Reed, Sandra Kopp, Bruce Braithwaite, Matthew Donovan (Junior Warden), Chuck Howard (Senior Warden), Fred Swetland, Ken Fraser (by phone), and Hope Stephenson. Those absent were: Claudette Belnavis, Anne Castellina, Don McKelvy.

Clergy Present: Fr. RJ Johnson

Father RJ opened the October 2018 Vestry meeting with a prayer (6:00pm).

The Bible study was led by Sandra Kopp. The reading was Proverbs 5-6. Let go, Let God.

PRIEST'S REPORT: Father RJ spoke briefly of attending the 50th Annual Diocesan Convention on October 12 and 13. Several others attended from Christ Church including Deacon, Michael Sircy, Anne Castellina, Chuck Howard and Hope Stephenson.

The church retention and shredding policies are being reviewed.

SENIOR WARDEN: Don McKelvy turned in his verbal resignation from vestry. He is moving to Boca Grande to be closer to family. The vestry will appointment someone to fill the balance of his term.

The A/C compressor was replaced in the second floor Sunday school rooms.

Chuck met with members of the Thrift shop and Food pantry volunteers to discuss what they want from the new Saint Stephens-Christ Church building. There are discrepancies between the plans and the volunteers' visions. Saint Stephens is working on some plan revisions. A meeting between Christ Church representatives and John Neil, Tom Brown and Jan Pullen for Saint Stephens will be held to go over the changes. That date is yet to be determined.

JUNIOR WARDEN: Saturday, October 27th is Church Inventory Day. The start time is 9am. Debbie Holt is making forms for recording room items. Will also want to take cell phone pictures and send them to Richard Odell. Several groups in the church (office staff, musicians, altar guild) have volunteered to do specific areas of the church.

OUTREACH: Jim and Lolly Weaver have agreed to chair the annual auction/dinner for the upcoming year. This is a one-year commitment only. Vestry members, particularly, need to thank the Weavers. Christ Church still needs a long-term chairperson for the Outreach committee. There is a binder set up for this position for anyone interested in taking on the job.

STEWARDSHIP: By the next vestry meeting, the Cottage Meetings will be over. The first meeting held last week, had nothing but positive feedback. Planned aspects of the meetings included: 20 minutes of fellowship, prayer led by Father RJ, Chuck presented the staff and Patrick presented the financial figures of our church and introduced the set up of the pledge cards. Bishop Harris, who is preaching at church on Sunday, October 21st, will also encourage attending the cottage meetings. Chuck Howard presented a stewardship talk at all 3 services on Sunday, October 14th, Ken Fraser will be speaking on October 21st and Gene Zeiner will speak on October 28th. The vestry, as a group, thanks all the speakers, especially for their candor and open hearts. The talks are and will be inspiring. It was suggested that the stewardship talks be recorded and put on the church website. Pledge cards will be mailed November 1st.

NEW BUSINESS:

Parish Survey: Chuck will resend the 4 parish surveys to all vestry members. Each member will review the 4 samples and email Chuck regarding which survey they prefer. The surveys can be altered, so vestry members are encouraged to make comments. With pledge cards going out November 1st, it was decided the parish profile should be available at the start of Advent 2018.

Church Website: Sandra Kopp presented regarding the website. Her son, RJ Bruneel, the web master, would like to change the website from Wix, which he finds too limiting. After discussion, Jane Reed motioned we allow RJ Bruneel to use his design preference. Bruce Braithwaite seconded the motion and it was passed unanimously.

Vestry members would like to see (but not limited to): service times, church location, contact information, videos of services/sermons, PDF of Parish Profile Survey, church calendar and photos. Vestry members would like to see the church on Facebook and Google and would like the appearance of the website to be simple and user friendly.

Coat Drive: The St. Anne's group has asked for permission to conduct another coat drive this year. The vestry discussed the topic and found no objection to the coat drive.

Job Descriptions: The vestry received updated job position descriptions for Maryam Whitaker's position as Sunday School director and Debbie Holt's position as Parish Administrator. After discussion, it was decided to advertise for 2 part time people to fill Maryam Whitaker's vacancy and possibly reallocated some of the job duties for both Maryam and Debbie's positions.

Advertising avenues include Facebook, church bulletin, word of mouth, diocesan website, Christ Church website and possible on the electronic sign in the front of the church. Applicants will need a resume and will go through background checks. It was suggested we contact Greg Randall at the Diocesan office for help writing the advertisement. Jane Reed motioned we hire two part time people and Fred Swetland seconded the motion. It passed unanimously.

Youth Ministry: Hope Stephenson attended a workshop at the Diocesan Convention titled "Youth Ministry & Formation Workshop", led by Greg Randall from the Diocesan office. One of the main thoughts brought up was that ALL members of a congregation should minister to the Youth (coming from our baptismal covenant) and that actions should be in conjunction with formalized youth leaders and programs. Christ Church needs a vision for our youth members and an action plan to support that vision. Suggestions for finding a youth minister can come from within our congregation (which may entail training for that/those persons) or outside our church. Greg Randall can help us with job boards throughout the diocese.

Bank Account Information Access: A show of hands supported Chuck Howard, Senior Warden, having access to account information to the Hancock-Whitney bank accounts. Father RJ stated all vestry members should have this access, as well.

OLD BUSINESS:

Electric Sign: The electric sign has been ordered. It will be the same as the old one with the exception of having the word "Episcopal" added. (as in Christ Episcopal Church)

Myakka City Property: The church has a closing date of November 16, 2018 for the sale of the Myakka property.

TREASURER'S REPORT: There was a net loss of $195,695 for September 2018. Tuning of the organ was discussed. The idea that many people prefer to give to a certain project was also brought up. Bruce Braithwaite stated emphatically that our church budget must balance this year. The church cannot continue to use the principal of the endowment fund. Hope Stephenson motioned to approve the September 2018 Treasurer's Report. The motion was seconded by Jane Reed. The motion passed unanimously.

Approval of September 2018 Vestry Minutes: Chuck Howard motioned to approve, and Bruce Braithwaite seconded the approval of the September 2018 Vestry Meeting Minutes. The motion passed unanimously.

The next Vestry Meeting is Monday, November 12, 2018 at 6pm in Meeting Room #1.

Father RJ adjourned the meeting with a prayer at 8:20pm.

Congratulations!
