Rectors, Vicars, Priests-in-Charge,

Dear Friends,

I am writing you today in regard to the new and revised CDC guidelines that have come into effect. These guidelines will grant a great deal of freedom to fully vaccinated people.

I first and foremost advise you to primarily take into account the safety of your parishioners and church sanctuary buildings. Please follow the CDC guidelines as completely as possible.

In addition, I advise the following:

- For fully vaccinated people, mask wearing and social distancing are optional
For non-vaccinated individuals, mask wearing and social distancing are highly recommended
For the time being, guidelines for Holy Communion will remain the same

You may also consider designating an area for those who desire to continue social distancing.

Faithfully yours,
The Right Reverend Dabney T. Smith

Collect

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Wisdom of Solomon 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death,
And he does not delight in the death of the living.
For he created all things so that they might exist;
the generative forces of the world are wholesome,
and there is no destructive poison in them,
and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.
For righteousness is immortal.

God created us for incorruption,
and made us in the image of his own eternity,
but through the devil's envy death entered the world,
and those who belong to his company experience it.

This I call to mind,
and therefore I have hope:

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
steadfast love;

Psalm 30

- 1 I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me up *
and have not let my enemies triumph over me.
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried out to you, *
and you restored me to health.
- 3 You brought me up, O LORD, from the dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you servants of his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, *
his favor for a lifetime.
- 6 Weeping may spend the night, *
but joy comes in the morning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."

Psalm 30, continued

- 8 Then you hid your face, *
and I was filled with fear.
 - 9 I cried to you, O LORD; *
I pleaded with the Lord, saying,
 - 10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?"
 - 11 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; *
O LORD, be my helper."
 - 12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.
 - 13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks for ever.
- Glory to the Father, and to the / Son, and to the Holy / Spirit;
as it was in the be / ginning,
is now and will be for ever. A / men.

The Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

As you excel in everything-- in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you-- so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something-- now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has-- not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

"The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little."

The Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Christian Education News

First let me begin with a huge ‘THANK YOU’ to all that have supported this initiative already! July 17th is quickly approaching. We are on track to distribute 500 FREE backpacks into our community! Many of you have asked what is still needed. We did have to purchase 250 backpacks at a very reasonable price, but they need to be paid for. So, money is a helpful donation for that purpose. The last thing that we need is on bagsinbulk.com item number SS7670 (The 30 piece school supply kit). We still need 13 boxes at $67.20 a box. With the addition of these supplies, we can fill these bags and be ready to rock and roll! Once again, thank you!! Pat Fraser “Give Away Saturday” is 7-17-21 in the Parish Hall from 11 am to 1 pm. Hotdogs & chips will be served. We still need your donations as listed above, so please drop them in the “Yellow Bus That Could.”

Volunteers are needed for The Lord’s Pantry on Wednesdays at 1 pm. Please call Claudette Belnavis at (201) 410 - 9835 or John Meeks at (941) 757-7569.

Beloved,
 I wanted to give you a heads up that I and my family will be gone on vacation from the last Sunday of June through the third Sunday of July. We will miss you while we are away. The Sundays I am gone will be covered by very capable priests. We will not have Wednesday night service while I am gone. If you have a pastoral care need, please contact the church office and they will connect you with pastoral care. God is doing great things at Christ Church, and I look forward to returning fully refreshed and ready to labor in God’s vineyard.

Grace and Peace,
 Robert +, Evelyn, Jeremiah, Henry, Helen, and Richard

We have many new ministry initiatives that we will be reviving or implementing in the near future. No good thing is ever accomplished in mission without the support of prayer. Please be in prayer with me for the following ministry initiatives: Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Awana, Stephen Ministry, Order of St. Luke, Order of St. Andrew, and Walking the Mourner’s Path. We will also be hiring a new youth minister and a new Director of Music Ministries when Dr. Benedum retires at the end of the year. There are many opportunities standing at our threshold, but nothing good happens in ministry without prayer. Please, let us all be in prayer together for the future of our Church.

Grace and Peace,
 Robert +

Music Notes

Pachelbel was a highly regarded Central German composer, often compared with his Northern counterparts Buxtehude and Bach. A contemporary publication claimed, “We have the learned musical trefoil in B, consisting of three incomparable virtuosi whose family names bear a B on their shields: Buxtehude, Bachelbel [sic], and Bach in Leipzig; these men mean as much to me as Cicero did to the Romans.” Clearly, uniformity of spelling was not important, and there was no 18th-century Spell-Check!

Pachelbel’s Canon in D is his most famous work, popularized through many recordings and arrangements. It was originally not only a canon for 3 violins and supporting bass instruments, but also has a recurring bass line that coincides with each canonic repetition.
